Volunteer Fairfax Named Co-Recipient of L. Burwell Gunn Citizenship Award 2017 FVCbank bestows this award in honor of former bank president

Fairfax, VA –May 17, 2017- At a ceremony held May 10 at The Waterford Fair Oaks, Volunteer Fairfax proudly received the L. Burwell Gunn Citizenship award in the amount of $2,500 from FVCbank. The presentation was part of the FVCbank's Annual Shareholders Meeting. The award honors L. Burwell Gunn, former president and vice chairman of FVCbank. Mr. Gunn--now retired but serving as FVCbank's Board of Directors Vice Chairman--was on hand to present the award to Elise Neil Bengtson. Also on hand for the presentation was Volunteer Fairfax's COO Emily Swenson, and Board of Directors members Tyler Corey, Rick Garza, and Craig Dubishar. Cornerstones was similarly awarded at this event.

Volunteer Fairfax and Cornerstones earned the recognition and support of FVCbank for their continued work to meet community need.

FVCbank, headquartered in Fairfax, is committed to conducting business in a way that gives back to the community.
